Menpais and Nimetd.-Ai the Syro Egyptian Society, on the 8th inat. a betver wa read from Mr. Harris, of Alesandra, Eith bi account of the Prench excarationpida, the neigbbourbood of Memphia. There had, ${ }^{\text {apep }}$ opened a gallery, tunnelleci into the bille, 2900 foot long, with cells on each side, each cell contriaing a buge granice marcophague of one of the sacred bulls. There were thirgy of these great marcophagi. Mr. Shupe gave an account of Mr. Harris's new work on the standads of the Enpplino toras, contaiaing the curiona discovery of the list of toras contributing to the coat of each teraple. Socte of the stand. ands Mr. Harris bas beea able to identify with the names of the $\mathbf{c}$ wna. They are all arranged in reagraphical order, from Nobia to Momphis, and Bair is the Deles. Mr. Ainsworth read paper by Dr. Grotelead, "On the Plan and Deatination of the Edifices of Nimrud, accord ing to the Specifications in Mr. Layard' Work." Dr. Grotafeod's two papers eatered largely into details concorning the deationtion of the varioas edificen and apartments of Nimrud, and dereloped the mytbology of the Asprisus from primeral worthip of the tarry bosts, wich their golden chariots and their leaderi, to Baw, the leader of the moet perfect chariot, imaged in the well-known circlen which are, so ririoundy modified.

A REvOLTing Waydrobe, say: contemporsy, has been made by Mr. Johaston. of Gloncester. Undersenth is a apece for hat or bandboxes, &ce. Which also revolred with the booke. This seems to be just an adaptation of tbe idea of a revolving deak for buciaess, papers, sec. uveb an appeared at the Interational Exhibiuon.

Astaonomical Osaseratozy and Moseum.-I thke the liberty of auggeatiog to the ceterprising clari who read yoor journal, the propriety of supplying, what I beve long thoaght to be aery great and remarkable want, among the pablic building of 10 renowned a mercaotrle country, ris. An atcronomioa obvervitory and museum, where that wonderful ecience might not only be tanght and illastrated, but aloo praetically pursued. I abould think that Gorerament Fould not rofuse to contribute to the erection of such a building, or site for it in one of our problic parte, out of the reech of the ribration of peening earriages, or on Primrosehill, if the pasias of the ralway trains through the tansel there sbould not reoder that nituation oeligible. Thay might even be diapoeed to fornd a college of astronotry, and in course of time it mintht become the cussom of eaptrias of rerohant remels to pats an exacoination maip of any consequence. Such an institation would do honour also to liverpaol and Bristol, and to ochert of our great nenport towns.
